RESULTS

NO SNOW, NO ICE, NO COLD WIND, finally just great weather.

The racers arrived to 60-degree temps, cool enough to keep you from overheating as you spun or pounded those pedals, very little wind, and a great tree lined racecourse.

Some very fast times were recorded in several categories. Women Open Julie Foertsch 33 seconds ahead of Debbie Dust, Debbie lost a few seconds when she caught a rider just before the turn around, once she yelled passing he rode straight so she could turn around first, nice polite move Rich.

In Category 1-2 Josh Mallan finished a minute ahead of the very close finish of ½ second separation between Rob Jungels & Mike Jones and Alistair Sponsel only 9 second back.

Master 50+ Mallan takes 1st by 1 ½ minutes with Adameczyk taking 2nd and 5 others within a minute of his time. You just know those placings will change each MATTs race.

There were other great rides by Pat Beam, Ken Roanhaus, Richard Proskurnicki, Jason Wagner, Doug Peterson, Mallan Mallan and how about the guy on the mountain bike with skinny tires and clip on bars, then they were some personal bests, hey the weather was great.
